

FRINGE BENEFITS:

COSMOPOLITAN DYNAMICS OF A MULTICULTURAL CITY

JULY 9TH-SEPTEMBER 23, 2008

OPENING RECEPTION: July 9th, 7:00p.m.
Design Exchange
234 Bay Street
Toronto

PROJECTS

Aga Khan Development Network
BAPS Shree Swaminarayan Mandir
T.Junction Developments
Cliffside Slips Charrette Team
Great Punjab Business Centre
Kuwabara Payne McKenna Blumberg Architects
Maclennan Jaunkalns Miller Architects
Moriyama & Teshima Architects
Leslie Morton
Pacific Mall
Parkin Architects Limited & Adamson Associates Architects
Shore Tilbe Irwin & Partners
Graeme Stewart, E.R.A. Architects Inc.
Teeples Architects Inc.
Urban Strategies Inc.
Wexford Heights Charrette Team

IAN CHODIKOFF

Curator

Featuring the work of artists, photographers, videographers, architects, essayists and researchers, this multi-disciplinary exhibition attempts to broaden our understanding of the changes occurring on a daily basis throughout the inner and outer suburbs of the Greater Toronto Area.

Curated by Ian Chodikoff, architect, urban designer and editor of Canadian Architect magazine, this exhibition will explore many of the contemporary issues in urbanism affecting the definition of a cosmopolitan society in Canada.

ART & VIDEO

Martha Eleen
Lisa Logan
Peter MacCallum
Heather McLean
Cécile Martin
Kristin Somborac, Edge Productions

ARCHITECTURAL PHOTOGRAPHY

Tom Arban
Shai Gil
Richard Johnson
Volker Seding

ESSAYS

Ian Chodikoff
John Lorinc
Narendra Pachkhede
Marie-Josée Therrien
Corinne Yap

RESEARCH & POLICY

Centre for Urban & Community Studies, University of Toronto
City of Toronto, City Planning-Urban Design
Rafael Gomez, ThinkTankToronto
Heather McLean
Smart Growth Secretariat, Ministry of Public Infrastructure
Renewal, Province of Ontario

1. Toronto Buddhist Church. Photo by Tom Arban.
2. Peace Village (Vaughan). Martha Eleen Studio.
3. Brampton Soccer Centre. Photo by Tom Arban.
4. Taste of the Lawrence. Photo by Ian Chodikoff.
5. BAPS Mandir, Toronto. Photo courtesy BAPS Mandir
6. Detail of Noor Cultural Centre. Photo by Richard Johnson.
7. Angus Glen Community Centre. Photo by Lisa Logan.
8. An Islamic-inspired motif on Millwood Drive. Photo by Ian Chodikoff.
9. Japanese Canadian Cultural Centre. Photo by Tom Arban.